OBJECTIVE

I'm a Full Stack Web Developer with strong skills in custom website development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, PHP, and MySQL. I also specialize in building responsive, SEO-friendly WordPress sites using themes like WoodMart, Avada, BeTheme, Astra, and tools like Elementor and WooCommerce. I'm looking to join a forward-thinking team where I can apply my skills to create high-performing, user-focused websites.

PROJECTS

Clockwork Pharmacy – <https://clockworkpharmacy.shop>

- Designed and developed a responsive, SEO-optimized e-commerce website for a UK-based pharmacy, with custom functionality for prescription services and health treatment bookings.
- Integrated secure service booking, product catalog, and user-friendly UI/UX tailored for mobile and desktop, improving customer accessibility and engagement.
- Set up Google Analytics, implemented technical SEO best practices, and created conversion-driven content that aligned with NHS guidelines and compliance.

NA Clinic – <https://naclinic.co.uk>

- Built a sleek, mobile-responsive website for a private aesthetics and wellness clinic, showcasing treatments, doctor profiles, and online consultation booking features.
- Implemented basic SEO structure, integrated Google Maps & contact forms, and prepared the site for future expansion with blog and service updates.
